Gloria (Recited)

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

Amen

First Reading

Prv 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

She works with loving hands.

When one finds a worthy wife,
her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax
and works with loving hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.
Give her a reward for her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Lectionary Psalm

Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5, R. see v.1a

(R.) Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Blessed are you who fear the Lord,
who walk in his ways!

For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
blessed shall you be, and favored.

(R.) Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
in the recesses of your home;
your children like olive plants
around your table.

(R.) Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the Lord.

The Lord bless you from Zion:
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

(R.) Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Second Reading

1 Thes 5:1-6

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians

Let the day of the Lord not overtake you like a thief.

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters,
you have no need for anything to be written to you.

For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night.

When people are saying, "Peace and security,"
then sudden disaster comes upon them,
like labor pains upon a pregnant woman,
and they will not escape.

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness,
for that day to overtake you like a thief.

For all of you are children of the light and children of the day.

We are not of the night or of darkness.
Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do,
but let us stay alert and sober.

Gospel Acclamation

Mt 24:42a, 44

(R.) Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Stay awake and be ready!

For you do not know on what day your Lord will come.

(R.) Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel (Longer Form)

Mt 25:14-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Since you were faithful in small matters, come, share your master's joy.

Jesus told his disciples this parable:

“A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them.
To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one—to each according to his ability.

Then he went away.

Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them,
and made another five.

Likewise, the one who received two made another two.
But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

After a long time
the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them.

The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five.

He said, ‘Master, you gave me five talents.
See, I have made five more.’

His master said to him, ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant.

Since you were faithful in small matters,
I will give you great responsibilities.
Come, share your master's joy.’

Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, ‘Master, you gave me two talents.

See, I have made two more.’

His master said to him, ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant.

Since you were faithful in small matters,
I will give you great responsibilities.
Come, share your master's joy.'

Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said,
'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant
and gathering where you did not scatter;
so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground.
Here it is back.'

His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant!
So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter?

Should you not then have put my money in the bank
so that I could have got it back with interest on my return?
Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten.
For to everyone who has,
more will be given and he will grow rich;
but from the one who has not,
even what he has will be taken away.
And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside,
where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

Gospel (Shorter Form)

Mt 25:14-15, 19-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Since you were faithful in small matters, come, share your master's joy.

Jesus told his disciples this parable:

“A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one—to each according to his ability.

Then he went away.

After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them.

Come, share your master's joy.’”

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
All bow up to and including "the virgin Mary,"
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

-OR-

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

*For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
